More than anything, Ella wants to go to the ball at the Royal Palace. But Ella is the slave of the household, waiting on every wish and whim of her horrible stepsisters.
They call her Cinderella for the ashes that cling to her face, hands and hair. How can

A collection of poems recreates not only the classic fairy tale, but also the more obscure characters such as the fairy godmother known as the Magic One, Cinderella's loyal cat, and the occasionally nervous prince.

A lighthearted personal account of the influence of musicals on everyday life is a part confessional, part social commentary that describes the author's experience of meeting famous celebrities, acquiring coveted bootleg recordings, and more. 30,000 first printing.

Performance in the Twenty-First Century: Theatres of Engagement addresses the reshaping of theatre and performance after postmodernism. Andy Lavender argues provocatively that after the 'classic' postmodern tropes of detachment, irony, and contingency, performance in the twenty-first century engages more overtly with meaning, politics and society. It involves a newly pronounced form of personal experience, often implicating the body and/or one's sense of self. This volume examines a range of performance events, including work by both emergent and internationally significant companies and artists such as Rimini Protokoll, Blast Theory, dreamthinkspeak, Zecora Ura, Punchdrunk, Ontroerend Goed, Kris Verdonck, Dries Verhoeven, Rabih Mroué, Derren Brown and David Blaine. It also considers a wider range of cultural phenomena such as online social networking, sports events, installations, games-based work and theme parks, where principles of performance are in play. Performance in the Twenty-First Century is a compelling and provocative resource for anybody interested in discovering how performance theory can be applied to
