Wine and food matching is the process of pairing food dishes with wine to enhance the dining experience. In many cultures, wine has had a long history of being a staple at the dinner table and in some ways both the winemaking and culinary traditions of a region will have evolved together over the years. Rather than following a set of rules, local cuisines were paired simply with local wines. The modern "art" of food pairings is a relatively recent phenomenon, fostering an industry of books and m

Wine and food pairing - Wikipedia

For example, it's fine to use a wine pairing with a strong oaky Chardonnay with grilled beef or a highly acidic red such as Sangiovese (Chianti), Pinot Noir or Beaujolais with fish or shellfish. In the end, it's not tradition that matters most. It's what completes the experience the best.
